

STERLING PHILLIPS

Sterling D Phillips was born in the Borough of Point Fortin, in the Twin Island Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, he am the eldest of seven children five boys and two girls.

After graduating from the San Fernando Government Secondary School, he joined the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service, where he spent fourteen (14) years of distinctive service, and received numerous awards, including “Devotion to Duty and Keen Powers of Observation”, to name a few. He was always looked upon by his peers, as a leader who could be depended upon to make sound judgments. Having made numerous arrests with convictions for Criminal Offences, he was promoted to Detective.

Sterling migrated to Brooklyn, New York in 1987, and worked in the construction field for about three years. He is presently employed with Consolidated Edison of New York as a Senior Substation Operator, where he has been working for the past seventeen (17) years. He is also a Union Shop Steward for the Utility Workers Union of America, Local 1-2, AFL-CIO. One of his objectives is to move into Management, before he retires.

He is very much involved in community based organizations. He has been a member of Lions Clubs International for the past six years, and is presently the President of the Brooklyn Vanderveer Park/Glenwood Lions Club. He is the President of the Trinidad & Tobago Alliance which is the umbrella organization of community based groups from Trinidad & Tobago within the Tri-State. There are about fourteen different Organizations which make up this Alliance. He is also the President of Islanders Cultural Organization of New Jersey based in East Orange, NJ. One may wonder what time he finds to be with his family. Well these are the things that make him who he is.

Presently he resides in the Borough of Brooklyn in the City of New York. He is happily married to his wife Jackie and is the father of three beautiful daughters, Liselle, Chenelle and Danielle. He loves traveling, dancing and singing and is a former Musical Festival winner in Trinidad & Tobago.